

IN FOCUS

Magazine

Business Career and Lifestyle for Today's Multi-Cultural Professional

January/February 2006

LANGUAGE SPEAKSM
Speaking your customer's languageSM

Annette Taddeo

Annette Taddeo is President & CEO of LanguageSpeak, a comprehensive language company that offers a broad range of language-related services including document translation, instruction, interpretation, software localization, Web site translation, cultural and language survival training in over 100 languages. Among the company's clients are prestigious firms such as Clorox, Dannon, ING, Office Depot, and Tropicana, just to name a few.

Politically active and civic-minded, Taddeo was appointed Vice Chair of the DNC- Democratic National Committee's Business Council in 2005. She is a National Founding Partner of Women Impacting Public Policy where she serves on the Executive Advisory Board. During the 2004 Presidential election, she was National Co-Chair of Business-women for Kerry and Mujeres for Kerry. Taddeo received the "Businesswoman of the Year award" at the Office Depot Success Strategies Conference in 2005 and was a recipient of the "Latina Excellence Award" and was listed as one of the "Top 50 Latina Entrepreneurs in the US" by Hispanic Magazine in 2004. In 2004 she was named the South Florida Business Journal's Business Woman of the Year. In 2002, she was honored by Miami-Dade County Commissioners for her exemplary contributions to Miami-Dade County and for her many accomplishments leaving a lasting impression to the county's residents by proclaiming May 9th "Annette Taddeo Day." IF